

Nursery

Come and help Desi Langmead attend to our youngest. The nursery is for ages 0-2. It provides a warm and nurturing atmosphere for our babies while the parents and guardians can enjoy worship. This is from 10-11:15 and we are looking for 1 or 2 Sundays per month.

UU Dreamers

This class is for ages 3- 5.

Aoife Barrington- Haber leads this class. We need a helper for this class. It begins with circle time and a story followed by “wondering questions” and work time for the children. It runs from 10:20 till 11:15 and we need 1 to 2 Sundays per month.

UU Explorers

This class is for ages 6-9

This class follows a specific curriculum. We begin with a circle check in followed by a story and several activities based on the story. This is a great class to get to know the kids and help them to explore what Unitarian Universalism is in our everyday lives.

We need 2 adults for this class 1 to 2 Sundays per month.

Neighboring Faiths

This is for ages 12- 14

The kids learn about different faith traditions and attend their worship and services. This class allows them to explore their own faith values while learning about others.

There is a curriculum to follow for this class.

We are looking for 2 teachers for this class. It runs 1 to 2 Sundays per month and some Friday nights or Saturdays to allow the kids to visit other services.

OWL K-1, OWL 4-6 OWL 7-9

OWL stands for Our Whole Lives. It is a comprehensive, progressive fact based sexual education grounded in our UU values. The age appropriate material starts in the early grades and moves through high school.

We need a male teacher for this class. It runs from January- June and again from September - December. They meet 2 to 3 Sundays per month.

Coming of Age

Grades 7-12

This class is an in depth exploration of personal faith and spirituality. They spend time with chosen mentors and creating their personal credos. This is a right of passage for your graduating kids.

The teachers follow a curriculum and guide the kids in this process.

We need 2 teachers for this class. It runs from January-June meeting at least 2 times per month.

Youth Groups

There is a Middle School and High School youth group.

The kids will meet monthly for social activities. They are also working on community social justice projects as well as day long or weekend events with other UU churches.

This is a great opportunity for the bond to strengthen for themselves and as UUs.

We need 2 adults for this.
